WHY CHOOSE KRISTEN?

2003 Realtor of the Year, Sales Cobb Association of Realtors

The selection of the Cobb Association of Realtors (CAR) REALTOR of the Year Sales Award is based on a strictly adhered to point system, with points being given for involvement on local, state, and national levels of the REALTOR organization, education experience, and accomplishments, and business accomplishments.

Kristen Crisp has been a member of the Cobb Association since May 1992, having first entered Real Estate in May 1991. She holds the designations of CRS and GRI, has qualified for CAR's Million Dollar Club since 1994, and in 2004, she received the 10 Year Phoenix Award. Kristen has served on numerous committees in previous years including positions on the Board of Directors from 2001-present, the Executive Committee from 2005-2008 and served as Association President in 2007.

Kristen has also been a member on the Board of Directors for the Georgia Association of Realtors (GAR) since 2001. She has served on the Multi-Board Professional Standards Committee, Communications & PR, RPAC, Convention, Sponsorship and Executive Committees. In addition, Kristen is a member of the National Association of Realtors (NAR) and served on its Board of Directors in 2007.

Kristen was selected for the 2007-2008 25th Anniversary Leadership Cobb class. In 2006, the Cobb Chamber of Commerce selected Kristen to participate in the Honorary Commanders Association. Presently, Kristen serves as both a CAR and GAR Board Member and GAR's 6th District RPAC Trustee alternate. Kristen is a 5th generation Cobb Countian, and from 2004-2005, she taught a monthly Character Education class at Harrison High School. She is also an Associate Broker with RE/MAX Greater Atlanta. Kristen is a member of the RE/MAX Platinum Club, the highest level of achievement within an organization and is a member of the RE/MAX Hall of Fame. Communities Magazine also ranked her in the Communities Top 100 in 2003. She is very active in the community, working with the Atlanta Union Missions, Children's Miracle Network, taking care of the "Crawlers" nursery at NorthStar Church, and working with MUST Ministries as both a volunteer and a financial supporter.
